

Addressing the Subjects of Family Abuse and Parenting in Canada to Newcomers

Segment # 1 (3:39)

Facilitators:

Mark Jacot and Donna Joyette

Opening and
Facilitator's Backgrounds

Mark Jacot

President, Jangles Productions

- Communications company since 1989
- Active in the Social Services Area
 - Produced materials for agencies that assist victims of family abuse:
 - Barbra Schlifer Clinic (Toronto)
 - Kids Help Phone (National)
- Produced newcomer orientation materials
- Conducted settlement sector research and training
- Carried out promotional campaigns to promote settlement services to newcomers
- Organized conferences for the settlement sector

Donna Joyette
President, Joyette Consulting

- Worked in front-line and management positions with woman abuse survivors and their children since 1983
- Instructor in the Assaulted Women's and Children's Counsellor Advocate program at George Brown College in Toronto
- Guest instructor at the Ontario Police College
- Facilitated numerous workshops in how to best respond to survivors of abuse
- Designed and facilitated both in-class and online curriculum on how to best identify and respond to abuse victims for the ministries of social service, settlement and integration, justice and health sectors